

PSALM 23 - (NLT)

The Lord is my shepherd; and he is always there to feed, guide and shield my heart and life. I have everything I need therefore, I shall not lack. He lets me rest in green, fresh and tender, meadows; he leads me beside peaceful (still and restful) streams. He renews my strength. He guides me along right paths, bringing honor to His name.

I will not be overwhelmed with fear for the prospect of losing my job due to the craziness of today's economy, for Father; You will always open another door for me to walk through. Should you close this door, let my heart not be troubled, but let me hold tight to the truth of Your love and let me know that you will provide for my care. You will keep my family protected and provisions flowing in as needed. Let all fear be blown away by the presence of the Holy Spirit now in Jesus mighty, holy anointed name. Put a smile on my face and may your peace rest deep within my heart. Be my shield from the enemy's arrows of fear, doubt and torment. Send your love in their place. Be my shield of faith and strength! May I hide safe under your wings as you daily strengthen my heart with assurance and confidence in You.

Even though I will be required at times as God's precious child and beloved of His heart, to walk through the dark, deep, sunless valley of death, I will not be afraid, for you are close beside me. Your rod and your staff protect and comfort (guide) me. I am Yours and therefore I am safe from the arrows of destruction that would try to cause panic in my mind and heart. You Jesus, are my comfort, your loving arms draw me close when I cry out and need your touch; you are my Hiding Place and my All in All.

Father, I stand in the power and authority of my Lord Jesus Christ and speak to the powers of hell to be broken and released from my children, grandchildren and great grandchildren's lives, and for the fruit of the Holy Spirit to manifest in their lives. Protect their minds and little hearts from words heard and actions seen by others who walk in the world and not in the Spirit. Send your angels to guard over them and let your covering of love over shadow them. Give me Holy Spirit wisdom, understanding and favor to deal with the powers of darkness and shine forth the light of your truth. Let not the flesh come in to cause confusion, but hold my mind and heart steadfast in your truths that will set me and my family free in Jesus' name I pray. Let me see Your hand Father move in the difficult situations that come our way. Let my faith be increased and released to believe You for restoration and healing.

Father You prepare a feast for me in the presence of my enemies. You welcome me as a guest, anointing my head with oil. My cup overflows with blessings. Surely your goodness and unfailing love will pursue me all the days of my life and I will live in the house of the Lord (and in His presence) forever. Amen.

Father, as I read this email from Bob Jones a few moments ago, I add it to my prayer for the day. May it touch with truth and power over the earth today and may the anointing of it set hearts free to move in your freedom. Bless the nations, our county and our president and each one in leadership to be willing to let their hearts be open to hear God's truth and act upon it. Cast out all fear and intimidation of man.

The reverent and worshipful fear of the Lord is the beginning of Wisdom, and the knowledge of the Holy One is insight and understanding—Proverbs 9:10

Wisdom is pouring out the Holy Spirit of God over the nations of this world. She is not limited! She's reciting the 23rd Psalm over them with the ten redemptive names of God.

Jesus is our Shepherd, Provider, Peacemaker, Healer, Righteousness, Warrior, Rewarder, Always Present, Savior, and Lord of Hosts.

I feel this is an invitation to “ask” for the nations as our inheritance! (Psalm 2:8). God’s heart is for all peoples, tongues, tribes and nations. As the Spirit of God is poured out we must call unto Him and He will answer us and show us great and mighty things which we did not know or understand (Jeremiah 33:3)

We will be led by Godly Wisdom into the secrets and mysteries of God. And like on the day of Pentecost, they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke in other languages (Acts 2:4); so will the nations, tribes and tongues come together in the power and authority of the Holy Spirit.

Dear reader, as you read this prayer, believe and receive; it is your truth and strength for this day!
