

THE BATTLE

The Lord showed me a scene
at my back door the other day
It is what happens in real life
when we need strength to go on our way.
There was a baby squirrel in the yard
and a blue jay was chasing him around.
The little squirrel had no peace,
until a friend he found.
A larger squirrel came into view;
he now had a friend you see.
This gave him courage;
he turned on that bird and made him flee.
He had that old bird running,
he would attack again when he tried to stop.
The battle went back and forth;
he truly made that old bird hop.
The old squirrel did not join in the battle,
he just stood there you see.
The little one had someone to stand with him
the way it should be.
When we are in battle
and with others we stand.
We will have more power
to get the upper hand.
I could watch no longer
for I too had things to do.
What I saw there
I know is really true.
This is not only true in the natural
but in the spiritual too.
We can stand together in prayer,
you can pray for me and I'll pray for you

Martha Stelle Cowan 6/3/09

Two are better than one because they have a good return for their labor. For if either of them falls, the other one will lift up his companion. But woe to the one who falls when there is no one to lift him up. Eccl 4:9-10