

YOU ARE THE ELECT OF GOD

by David Robinson,

You are God's Holy temple - 1 Corinthians 3:17

You are the elect of God, holy and beloved - Colossians 3:12

You are not some deadbeat loser; you're a son or a daughter of the risen Christ, your Lord's anointed or the hand maiden of the Lord (Acts 2:18) upon whom God has poured out his Spirit - Joel 2:29.

You're an over comer because you're born of God (1 John 5:4) and more than a conqueror (Romans 8:37).

You're not some down and out bum, you're a son or a daughter of the living God, and you have been created in his image and likeness through Christ. You're a priest of the Royal Priesthood and have an invitation to enter into the 'Holy place' the presence of God at any time.

A question for you mighty man or woman of God...

Would a child have to write seeking an audience with you as his parent? Would they need to wait for days in order to get your approval to sit at your side and to discuss the things that concern them? Of course not! Why then do we believe that God would have us wait for an audience? After all, we are his children?

Sure you get bad days, but that's why you have the 'Comforter' to lean on, Jesus called the Holy Spirit 'the other comforter' whom he would send to be with you to enable you to win every battle and to overcome every enemy. You are not alone; neither are you facing this present battle on your own. Christ awaits your call of faith, a call that's born out of desperation and need. He is waiting to hear you stand up in Holy Ghost anger against this cursed enemy of your peace; he is waiting for you to remind God of his promises so that he can send forth an anointing that will set you free.

Folks, do not get frustrated or get angry at wrong things. Let me ask you this; if someone in school attacked your child would it get you mad at them? Of course it would. Well then, get mad at your enemy, Satan, and take him down in the Holy Ghost. You were born to create havoc in hell, so go to it in the power of Christ's name! Make a demand on heavens resources, and ask in the certainty that the Lord is willing to help you overcome this work of Satan. He is more than willing to join you in the battle against sin and evil.

Let today be a day of new beginnings for you. Consider the author and finisher of your faith, Jesus Christ, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God for consider Him that endured such contradiction (disobedience and strife) against himself, lest you be wearied and faint in your minds. Hebrews 12:2-3.

Don't look at your present state, look at Christ, see how he endured pain knowing that a great victory would be won for you and me. See Christ, he is sitting down not standing, sitting watching a finished work, waiting for someone to make demands on His power to overcome every foe we will ever encounter.

Consider Christ, see what he endured, see his blood bought victory over Satan and sin, it is Christ who holds the keys to hell and death, and it is he who decides when he will bring us to himself not the devil. Allow Christ to finish his good work in you. He started it as the author and he will finish and perfect all things concerning you. Sure your weary, perhaps you feel like giving up, but why miss a victory that has been won, a victory that is yours in Christ your Lord and Saviour? Make a decision that this work of Satan will not prevail. It will not defeat you. Stand up on the inside and fight for your body which is the temple of God, fight once again for your health and for your family in the power of the Holy Spirit.

You have come too far to turn back now; the Promised Land awaits you, Gods best is still waiting. Let me put it this way, if you grew fruit in your garden, trees loaded with ripened and perfect fruit, what do you do, harvest or wait until they fall to the ground and become devoured by pests. You can harvest the fruit of God's Spirit and enjoy it or stand by and watch it robbed and destroyed. The decision is yours, the orchard is yours as an inheritance, the fruit is yours, all you need to do is to harvest and enjoy the benefits.

You were elected, chosen, ordained to be an over comer, not a defeatist! You were created to win, not lose. You are Gods best, not Gods worst. He didn't die for the animals or for the trees of this world. Christ died for you!! You are a pearl of great price, a treasure hidden in an earthen vessel, a lost sheep worth finding; you are a prodigal son or daughter returning home to a joy filled father. It's time to take back what the enemy has stolen from you; to take your place in Bible history as a mighty man or woman of valor! So, get up once again and fight—God is for you...
